Loyalty, Love, and Respect

Three pillars that shape every life. Three pillars that can hold humanity together or tear it apart. They are the same ideals every soldier, regardless of branch, vows to defend our right to uphold. Though each of us interprets these values differently, they are always present, carved and refined by our experiences, moment by moment. Boot camp strips soldiers down to the bare bones of their identities, only to rebuild them into a unified force. And yet, through that transformation, these three pillars stand firm.

The Veterans we have the honor of serving at the Georgia War Veterans Nursing Home are as diverse as they come. Their histories span a remarkable spectrum of hardship and triumph. Despite these vast differences, loyalty, love, and respect have been constants throughout their journeys. The holiday season is more than shopping, travel, or spirited debates over homemade macaroni and cheese versus Kraft mac n' cheese. It is a time for reflection, for giving, and for deciding how we want to share our own pillars with others.

How do we honor the men and women who sacrificed so much for us?

By sharing those same pillars with them.

Whether a Veteran is your parent, sibling, friend, or someone you've only just met, no one is ever truly alone. We are stronger together. With loyalty, love, and respect, we can bear the weight of our losses and celebrate the joy of our successes side by side.

Happy Holidays to all Veterans and the community we call home.

Heather Nichols,
Director of Activities

SOLUTIONS ON PG. 27

1. I tower above all and my color is green. Despite my prickly reputation, all the ornaments hang around me. What am I?
2. My embrace is warm, my marshmallows afloat, when winter winds chill, I comfort your throat. What am I?
3. I have neither feet, nor wheels, nor wings, but can travel many miles. I may bring money, a gift card, or simply a smile. What am I?
4. I'm grumpy and green and stole Christmas one night. But then my heart grew, and I set it all right. Who am I?

WITH CHAPLAIN TIMOTHY LARK

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Let me wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Despite all the difficulties, challenges, and changes that continue to come our way, it is still a wonderful day to be above ground! Think about this. We've survived illness. We triumphed over COVID and made it through the hurricane. We endured many hardships and are now at the turning point of a new year. We are still here despite all those ups and downs and twists and turns. I thank God for continuing to watch over us. After giving it some thought, I realized how blessed I am to spend time with our heroes at the Georgia War Veterans Nursing Home, also known as "The Blue Goose." I've met incredible men and women who are resilient and have gone through horrible circumstances that would break the average person; yet, they continue to have an attitude of gratitude. When asked how he was doing, one of the individuals I talk to frequently told me, "Fine as a frog's hair." If I told him it was nice to see him, he would respond, "Better to be seen than looked at." I'm often concerned about what kind of person I will be in my later years as I continue to mature. That is a lovely way of saying get older. I do ask God to give me the ability to be an elderly man who is kind, caring, polite, and well-mannered.

As this year comes to a close, let's enter 2026 being grateful and not hateful. For the Lord to keep giving us guidance for our lives, let's have complete faith in Him. Let's not rely on our own wisdom in any manner (Proverbs 3:5-7). I thank you for allowing me to be your Chaplain. I pray for the Lord's continued blessings to be upon each one of you in the years to come.

Thank you!

Timothy E. Lark
Chaplain
